

Please do not stop regulating broadband service, it will wipe out the small ISP's that provide better service at reasonable prices in comparison to the large corporations. It is preferable for most of us to continue having choices...